

AFOEM Awards and Prize

Ramazzini Prize
Prize:	$500, acknowledgement of achievement in RACP Newsletter and Faculty Website and Newsletter. Presented at 2011 ASM
Open to:	AFOEM Trainees
Criteria:	The Ramazzini Prize is presented annually to the trainee who presents the best scientific paper at the Annual Scientific Meeting (ASM). This is based on their research project. It is a requirement that a trainee must present a paper for the Ramazzini prize at the Annual Scientific Meeting at least once during their training period to attain Fellowship. This assists trainees to demonstrate their research methods and communication competencies. The purpose of the Ramazzini presentation is to assess the presentation and communication skills of trainees with their ability to present research to a scientific audience Abstracts must be submitted to the Faculty Office for review by the end of January for review.
Note:	